

AGI-SCOTLAND | ANNUAL EVENT 2021 EVENT PROGRAMME

Virtual Event | 23/02/2021 & 24/02/2021

Please bear with us if we need to amend the programme without prior notice.

Day 1 – 23rd February 2021

Start & End	Speaker	Title
8:45 – 9:30	Registration and Networking
9:30 – 9:35	Bruce Gittings (Chair - AGI Scotland)	Welcome
Session 1 – Chair: Alan Moore
9:35 – 10.00 (Keynote)	Neil Stuart (University of Edinburgh) & Nick McWilliam (MapAction)	How online mapping is bringing scientists and communities together to develop new forms of hazard information
10.00 – 10.20	Murray Collins (Space Intelligence)	AI for Good: Using large volumes of satellite data to support Nature Based Solutions to climate Change
10.20 – 10.30	Dr Ashley Stewart (Optimat)	Location Data Scotland - Developing Scotland's Geospatial Community
10.30 – 10.40	David Ferguson (ScotlandIS)	ScotlandIS and the role of Clusters
10.40 – 10.50	Q&A Session (Optimat & ScotlandIS)
10.50 – 11.05	Cadcorp, ESRI, Geomni, Ordnance Survey, thinkWhere	Introducing our Sponsors
11:05 – 11:35	Coffee and Networking
Session 2 – Chair: Dominic Cuthbert
11:35 – 11:55	Amelia Baptie (British Geological Survey)	The Geospatial Commission Archive Data Extraction project: working together to develop best practice
11:55 – 12:15	Polly Hudson (Colouring London)	Colouring Cities- co-creating open building stock databases & knowledge exchange platforms
12:15 – 12:35	Ron Wilkinson & Roger Garbett (Improvement Service)	The One Scotland Gazetteer: A tale of collaboration
12:35 – 13:00	Networking – End of Day 1
19.00 – 21.00	Quiz

AGI-SCOTLAND | ANNUAL EVENT 2021

EVENT PROGRAMME

Virtual Event | 23/02/2021 & 24/02/2021

Please bear with us if we need to amend the programme without prior notice.

Day 2 – 24th February 2021

Start & End	Speaker	Title
8:45 – 9:30	Registration and Networking
9:30 – 9:35	Peter Green (Chair of the event committee)	Welcome
Session 1 – Chair: Michael Groves
9:35 – 10.00 (Keynote)	Alan Corbett & Bruce Jackson (Scottish Government)	Scotland's Geospatial Initiatives
10.00 – 10.20	Theo McCaie (UK Met Office)	Pangeo - an open community approach to tackling the big data challenge in environmental sciences
10.20 – 10.40	Katie McDonough (The Alan Turing Institute)	Maps and Machines: Using Computer Vision to Analyse the Geography of Industrialisation (1780-1920)
10.40 – 11.00	David Wood (Government Geography Profession)	How the Government Geography Profession supports public sector geographers
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee and Networking
Session 2 – Chair: Ryland Karlovich
11:30 – 11.50	James Norris & Olivia Powell (OS & Geospatial Commission)	How the UK contributes to the international geospatial landscape
11:50 – 12:10	Stephen Milne (CENSIS)	Fully realising the value of IoT through Geospatial
12:10 – 12:30	Chris Fleet (National Library of Scotland)	Collaborations with old maps
12.30 – 12.35	Bruce Gittings	Event close
12:35 – 13:00	Networking – End of Day 2

