

08:45	Registration and Networking
09:30	Welcome and Introduction to the AGI
09:45	Trisha Wells-Lane, Esri UK
10:10	Keynote - Professor Scott Orford, Cardiff University Public Map Platform is a two-year research initiative led by Cambridge University to make places in the UK better for the people who live there, focused on Ynys Mon / Anglesey.
10:30	Pascal Coulon, CGI
10:55 - 11:25	Break, Networking and visit our Exhibitors
11:25	Duncan Hill, Europa Technologies
11:40	Nicholas Kinsella, Ulster University CH4 Sentinel - An Open-Source, Processor Light Method for Measuring Methane Super Emitters
12:00	Mike Saunt, Astun Technology GIS for the Built Environment: Cloud & Collaboration
12:15-13:15	Lunch, Networking and visit our Exhibitors
13:15	Richard Flemmings, Map Impact Map Impact – Understanding new climate risks in the Built Environment
13:35	Joe Hillard and Viviana Caroli, National Trust Mapping the Past, Empowering the Present: How National Trust HART Volunteers Are Using GIS to Protect Heritage
13:55	James Wardroper, Ordnance Survey National Underground Asset Register (NUAR)
14:15-14:45	Interactive Session
14:45	Hannah Brooks, Geoplace Policy principles to support the effective use of address data
15:05 - 15:35	Break, Networking and visit our Exhibitors
15:35	Keynote - Gayle Lister, Pembrokeshire Coast National Park Authority Planning for the Conservation and Enhancement of Dark Skies in Wales
15:55	Summary and Close of Day	